

The Intersection of Art and Autism Spectrum Disorder through the Lens of Personal Narratives

Supporting Information

Aoife Y. Tang

Table S1. Participant Demographics

Participant Pseudonym	Age (at diagnosis)	Gender	Diagnosis	Education Level	Ethnicity/Race	Employment	Location
Amelia	57*	Female	Autism Spectrum Disorder	College diploma	White	Self-employed Artist, psychic, astrologer	California, USA Ontario, Canda
Olivia	41 (38)	Female	Autism Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, dyslexia	Two diplomas and a few certificates (not specified)	White	Part-time Disability support worker	Victoria, Australia
Ellis	30 (29)	Non-binary Born female	Autism Spectrum Disorder, anxiety, depression, PTSD	High School Diploma	White	Self-employed Artist	Tennessee, USA
Jason	32 (5)	Male	Autism Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, Asperger's syndrome	College diploma	White	Part-time Contractor and Art teacher	California, USA
Lauren	18 (15/16)	Female	Autism Spectrum Disorder, OCD, generalized anxiety disorder	High School Diploma	White	Not employed, Student	North Carolina, USA
John	37 (3)	Male	Autism Spectrum Disorder	Bachelor Degree of Fine Arts	Asian	Part-time Self-employed	Vancouver, Canada
Michael	23 (2)	Male	Autism Spectrum Disorder, Tourette Syndrome, Speech Disorder	High School Diploma	White	Part-time Self-employed	Virginia, USA
Ruth	38 (13)	Female	Autism Spectrum Disorder, total blindness	High School Diploma	Asian	Employed	Maryland, USA
Taylor	35 *	Non-binary	Autism Spectrum Disorder, fibromyalgia, complex PTSD, depression, anxiety, and nightmare disorder	College Diploma	White and Hispanic	Self-employed Artist	Colorado, USA

*Self-diagnosed